Rehabilitation of Offenders Act, 1974 (Exceptions Order, 1975)

Please note that applicants for teaching posts are not entitled to withhold information about past convictions, 'spent' or otherwise, under the terms of the above Act. The Act made a specific exception in respect of teachers in schools or establishments for further education that involves access to persons under the age of 18 as part of the employee's normal duties.

Do you have any criminal convictions which are not filtered out pursuant to the rehabilitation Act 1974 as amended on 29th of May 2013? Any information may be given on a separate sheet from your application form and will be kept completely confidential. It will be considered only in relation to an application for positions to which the Exception Order applies.

The successful candidate must be able to satisfy an enhanced disclosure check with the Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS)

Declaration: I have read and understood the above statement. If I have any convictions or cautions to declare I will supply written details of them, in a separate envelope marked 'private and confidential' with this application.

Signed Date

Please note, for jobs involving working with Children or Vulnerable Adults, the statutory regulations require us to ascertain whether the physical and mental fitness of persons appointed to such roles is at an appropriate level prior to any confirmation of appointment.
