<sup>1</sup> A looked after child as defined by Section 22(1) of the Children Act 1989, is a child who is (a) in the care of a local authority, or (b) being provided with accommodation by a local authority. Priority is also given under this criterion for looked after children who ceased to be so because they: (1) were adopted under Section 46 for the Adoption and Children Act 2002; (ii) became subject to a residence order under Section 8 of the Children Act (1989), which settles the arrangements to be made as to the person with whom a child is to live; (iii) became subject to a special guardianship order under Section 14A of the Children Act 1989, which is an order appointing one or more individuals to be a child's special guardian(s). Applications under (i) to (iii) as outlined above, can only be considered if supporting documents, in the form of a copy of the adoption order, residence order or special guardianship order, together with a letter from the local authority that last looked after the child confirming that (s)he was looked after immediately prior to the order being made, is submitted with the SIF.
